CESC pulls the plug on dangerous wires

70 teams formed to disconnect cables from electricity poles

Mysuru, June 11 (MTY&BCT)- In the aftermath of many accidents owing to cases of electrocution, the Chamundeshwari Electricity Supply Corporation (CESC) has speeded up the process of removal of unauthorised OFC cables and coaxial cables laid at the transformer units and electricity poles.

Officials said the removal of unauthorised cables is a continuous process but during monsoon, cases of accidents are common. In the past too, CESC has set many deadlines for cable television operators and internet service providers to pay the stipulated fee for regularisation of the unauthorised cables tied to electricity poles.

As the warnings went unheeded, CESC has begun operations to pull out all the unauthorised television and internet connection cables tied to electricity poles if the cable television and internet service providers fail to regularise them by paying the stipulated fee.

Yesterday, the operation was held in the Central Business District like D. Devaraj Urs Road, Shivarampet, Vinoba Road, Narayana Shastri Road, D. Subbaiah Road and surrounding areas. CESC officials said that notices had been issued to 49 cable operators in the city who had not paid the fee to tie cables on electricity poles. Such cables are cut as guidelines have been violated, they said.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Though Bengaluru is touted as one of the fast-growing cities in the world, infrastructure has woefully fallen short of requirements mainly due to lack of foresight and implementation delays. A mass rapid transit system was proposed in 1977, but after much delay, a 6-km stretch of Namma Metro was inaugurated only in 2011. Now, a decade later, it connects many parts of the city but is still a work in progress. The Bengaluru-Mysuru Infrastructure Corridor, which was planned in 1995, has not taken off, except for the Ring Road portion connecting Electronics City to Tumkur Road. The Peripheral Ring Road, which was conceived over 15 years ago at about Rs. 3,000 crore, continues to hang fire and is now estimated to cost over Rs. 21,000 crore. The new and 'ultramodern' M. Visvesvaraya Railway Terminal at Baiyappanahalli, which was inaugurated this week, took a long time to be completed. Even now, it has poor connectivity. The undue delay in the implementation of infrastructure projects has cost Bengaluru dearly. Governments and other agencies should make it a point to complete projects in time to avoid cost escalation and to benefit most from them. — In Deccan Herald

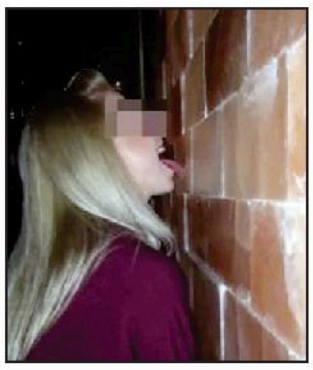
Restaurant encourages patrons to lick its salty wall



Scottsdale: A popular restaurant at Scottsdale in Arizona, by the name The Mission, has been getting a lot of attention for encouraging visitors to literally lick a wall made of pink Himalayan salt.

Many patrons of The Mission restaurant have been doing it for the past 17 years and it's not like the staff and management don't know about it, in fact, they are encouraging people to lick their famous wall made of pink Himalaya salt.

The Mission has long been known for its delicious dishes and the pink salt wall built around its kitchen. The head chef was the one who brought the salt rocks in to add to the overall ambiance of the place and to give patrons a new way of enjoying their tequila shots. Suck on a lime, lick the wall and down the shot. At least that was the original idea, but people started licking it whether they were drinking tequila or not.

Issue of Death Certificates: Emulate Chennai model

Sir,

This refers to the news item titled "Birth or Death, No Certificates..." in Star of Mysore dated May 25.

Recently I was required to attend the funeral of my close relative at Chennai. The arrangements made there was a wonderful experience to me. The body was received only at pre-appointed time slot.

A large board was erected to announce free of cost service for burning the body in the crematorium. The behaviour of the staff was very cordial. A Corporation staff was manning computer desk. He gathered all the information manually and handed over a copy of the same.

He further gave details of the website and link code and advised us to login to the same after 21 days and download any number of copies of Death Certificate, according to our requirements. I hope our State Government officials emulate this style of working and help free citizens from the clutches of lethargic and corrupt officials handling this crucial document.

ATM kiosk theft in Maddur: One arrested in Uttar Pradesh

Hunt on for other gang members who stayed in Maddur as tender coconut vendors

Maddur, June 11 (BCT)- Two months after a gang of five thieves that had stolen Rs. 20.62 lakh from an ATM kiosk after breaking open the cash machine with a gas cutter, the Maddur Police have arrested one person from Ghaziabad in Uttar Pradesh (UP).

Deepak Tomar

The gang has expertise in using gas cutter to open ATM machines and they had spread their network far and wide from UP. They had targeted the ATM at Maddur on KSRTC Depot road.

Police are on the lookout for other gang members who are said to be natives of UP and Haryana. The arrested has been identified as 29-year-old Deepak Tomar alias Kullu. As per information provided by Deepak, the others who are involved in the loot are Ravindra Yadav alias Mangal from Ghaziabad and Saleem alias Chiepha from Mewat in Haryana, Fouji and Raja. The incident was reported on Apr. 11.

Police said that they worked as tender coconut vendors and frequently visited Maddur town at the tender coconut market. During the day they carried out tender coconut business and after dark, they would scout for deserted ATM kiosks to loot them. They had taken a house for rent near the market.

Car tail lamps only clue

On the night of the loot, the burglars came in front of the target ATM in a Swift car and as soon as they got in, they sprayed colour paint on the CCTV camera. A team led by Inspector K.N. Harish identified the make of the car with the help of the tail lamps that were recorded on the CCTV fixed outside the ATM kiosk.

An 8-member team was formed and two members from the District Police technical team were also added. Apart from the tail lamps, make of the car and its colour, there was nothing available as a clue.

150 CCTV cameras checked

After committing the crime, the gang members fled to their native States. The Police team checked the footage of over 150 CCTV cameras on the way from Maddur to Mysuru but still did not get any clues. 15 days after starting the investigation, the Police team learnt that a Swift car had entered the road behind Maddur Market days before the crime.

Following the lead, the Police found out that the house was vacated on Apr. 12 morning, the day after the crime. The landlord informed the Police that a person who claimed to be a tender coconut vendor had taken the house on rent and had stayed in the house only for 10 days.

Trip to Delhi, UP

Acting on leads from informants, coupled with evidence obtained through technical means, the Police later zeroed in on a mobile number which took them to New Delhi based on the address and tower location. Team members spread their net to Uttar Pradesh, Uttarakhand and were desperate for the arrest. Finally, the mobile tower location showed Ghaziabad in UP.

However, it was not easy for the Police to arrest the criminals and they had to camp in Ghaziabad for 10 days. Inspector Harish was finally successful in arresting Deepak Tomar. He was produced in the Ghaziabad Court and was taken to Maddur. Deepak later spilt the beans and Police identified the remaining members.

Though the Police could recover the gas cutter and some cash, most of the loot is with the other gang members.

Sub-Inspectors Aiyyanagowda, R.B. Umesh, P. Ravi, Mahesh and staff Mahesh, Riyaz Pasha, Guruprasad, Prashanth, Omkarappa, Sharath, Girish, Ravikiran and Lokesh were part of the investigating team.

Dating online? Beware, you might lose your money

City Police arrest man who cheated by promising massage service through dating app

Mysuru, June 11 (RK&BCT)- Of late, the number of people using online dating apps and websites is on the rise and compared to the few years there is also a drastic increase in the number of dating apps and websites offering services.

These apps and websites serve as a medium which helps users find the right match.

As these websites are used by a lot of people, dating frauds are also on the rise where fraudsters target people who use these websites, to cheat them of their hard-earned money.

Sleuths of the Cyber, Economic and Narcotics (CEN) wing of the Mysuru city have arrested a man who swindled his victim of Rs. 3,000 through an online dating application. A press release from the office of the City Police Commissioner said that the dating app 'Locanto' was used for the fraud and the arrest was made within 24 hours.

However, the identity of the victim and the arrested has been kept confidential. Police said the accused would create fake profiles on 'Locanto', with bogus details and use photos of different women. The app was encrypted and therefore, the accused felt more secure using it.

In his complaint, the victim said that he was promised massage service, for which he had paid Rs. 3,000 online. After the money was paid, the fraudster went incommunicado. Police said that the dating app claimed to provide massage services by college girls, video call services by girls in the nude and interaction with women.

Fraudsters in these cases only take digital payments. Through dating apps, they would pretend to be a woman and lure gullible men to transfer money. After the transaction, the accused would turn off the phone and block the SIM cards. The fraudsters usually collect 50 percent of money upfront for each service and investigations have revealed that more than 80 customers had cumulatively lost more than Rs. 8 lakh.

Mysuru, June 11 (SBD&BCT)- Hundreds of people under the banner of the Mysuru Unit of the Social Democratic Party of India (SDPI) staged a protest in the city yesterday flaying the remarks on Prophet Mohammad made during a TV debate by the now-suspended BJP leaders Nupur Sharma and Naveen Jindal. The protest was held at Milad Bagh in response to the nationwide protest called by the SDPI demanding the arrest of Nupur Sharma and Naveen Jindal. Terming the party's action against them as an 'eyewash,' they alleged that the action against them came after international pressure.

Nirmala Sitharaman Jaggesh Lehar Singh Jairam Ramesh

Bengaluru, June 11 (KMS& DM)- The ruling BJP won three seats, while the Congress bagged one seat and the JD(S) drew a blank in the Rajya Sabha polls held for four seats from Karnataka yesterday.

Union Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman, actor Jaggesh and former MLC Lehar Singh Siroya were elected from the BJP, while former Union Minister Jairam Ramesh was elected on a Congress ticket. The BJP had renominated Nirmala Sitharaman.

While the victory of three candidates — Nirmala Sitharaman and Jaggesh of the BJP and Jairam Ramesh of the Congress — was very much on expected lines, there was suspense on who would take the fourth seat. Ultimately, Lehar Singh Siroya of BJP put all speculations to rest, by winning the fourth seat, taking advantage of the lack of co-ordination between the Congress and JD(S), who had fielded their own candidates.

Kupendra Reddy of JD(S) and Mansoor Ali Khan of Congress had to bite the dust, as either of the two parties — Congress and JD(S) — were willing to withdraw their candidate or reach an understanding for fourth seat, as the result of three other seats was a foregone conclusion, as BJP had the numbers to bag two seats and Congress one seat.

JD(S) candidate Kupendra Reddy also suffered a setback, as two of the party MLAs — K. Srinivas Gowda of Kolar and S.R. Srinivas of Gubbi — cross-voted, in violation of the party whip.

Take strict measures to eradicate child labour system: ADC

Mysuru, June 11 (SSM) - "It is important to create awareness among the public about the evil practice of employing children as labourers by staging street plays. We must join hands to eradicate child labour system in our society," opined Additional Deputy Commissioner (ADC) Dr. B.S. Manjunathaswamy.

He was addressing a meeting at the Deputy Commissioner's Office auditorium regarding the upcoming 'World Day Against Child Labour' celebration on June 12 with the theme "Universal Social Protection to End Child Labour."

The significance of this Day is to pay attention to the problem of child labour and to find ways to eradicate it. The Day is used to spread awareness about the harmful mental and physical problems faced by children forced into child labour, all over the world.

District Administration, District Legal Services Authority (DLSA) and Labour Department must jointly organise various awareness programmes regarding eradication of child labour completely. Necessary action must be taken to send back child labourers to school. Introduce the Helpline number 1098 to the public, so that they can report any child labour cases they come across, he told the meeting.

Assistant Labour Commissioner Nazia Sultana, Labour Officer Rajesh Jadav, Project Director H.P. Mallikarjun. Senior Labour Inspectors Jayanna, Sreedhar and other Department Officials were present.

Birth centenary of Sheila Irani tomorrow

Remembering an Educationist, Parliamentarian & Philanthropist

Mysuru, June 11 (KS)- The birth centenary of Sheila Irani, an Educationist, Parliamentarian and Philanthropist, will be celebrated at Ideal Jawa Rotary School on JLB Road and at Chamundi Children's Home in Brindavan Extension here on June 12.

A well-known Mysurean, Sheila Irani made a name in the field of education by starting Ideal Jawa Rotary Children's School. She started her career as a nursery teacher in Delhi and later founded the Ideal Jawa Rotary School in 1968, which grew into one of the most prestigious Schools in the city.

It is a joyous moment for Ideal Jawa Rotary School to celebrate the 100th birth anniversary of the School's Founder and honour the memory of Sheila Irani.

The School Management, along with staff, students and office-bearers of Rotary Clubs, will pay tribute to Sheila Irani and Farrokh Irani by offering floral tributes to the bust of Sheila Irani installed in the School campus.

Various cultural programmes by students have been organised Ideal Jawa Rotary School on June 14.

PROFILE

Born on June 12, 1922 at Nainital, Sheila Irani got training as a nursery teacher at St. Margaret's College in Bombay and taught in Delhi. She married industrialist Farrokh K. Irani (F.K. Irani), who founded Ideal Jawa (India) Limited in Mysore and moved to Mysore in 1951. The couple was blessed with three children — Raian F. Irani, Kairus F. Irani (late) and daughter Morvarid Fernandez.

After coming to Mysore, Sheila Irani started Ideal Jawa Rotary Children's School on Jan. 25, 1968, for which she was the Principal and Correspondent for more than three decades. She also constructed Chamundi Children's Home at Brindavan Extension, which is functioning to this day.

Ideal Jawa Rotary Children's School went on to become one of the most sought after educational institutions in Mysore. She used to encourage students to read books and took utmost care of their overall development. She was a keen believer in the merits of arts and crafts and made the same an integral part of the school day.

As an educationist, she gave major emphasis on parent-teacher-student interaction as part of the children's overall development and was supported by Anglo Indian teachers, prioritising value-based practical education before it came into vogue.

Sheila Irani was not only involved in teaching students, but was also involved in many charity programmes along with Farrokh Irani. Many organisations were beneficiaries of their services and they had become household names in city.

She was involved in social service during World War II, where she volunteered and served in St. John's Ambulance Corps and was awarded the Viceroy's Certificate of Merit for her service.

Sheila Irani started her political career in 1968 after getting nominated to the Karnataka Legislative Assembly, where she served as a Member till 1978. Between 1993 and 1995, she served in the Senate of the University of Mysore. In 1995, she was nominated to the Parliament's 10th Lok Sabha for one of the seats reserved for Anglo-Indians. She was also the Vice-President of the Anglo-Indian Association.

Besides, Sheila Irani was involved in social work for humanitarian causes, treating leprosy patients, working as the Vice-President of an Orphanage and as a Trustee of numerous hospitals. She was on the board of the P.K. Sanatorium and Trustee of Holdsworth Memorial Hospital (Mission Hospital) and served as an Executive Member of Frank Anthony's Public School, Cathedral High School in Bengaluru and Board Member of Laidlaw Memorial School in Nilgiris. She was a member of Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan (BVB), Mysore Kendra and a Member of Mysore Agenda Task Force (MATF) too.

Though Sheila Irani passed away on Apr. 10, 2003, her memory remains in the hearts and minds of many who are trying to follow her ideals.

FROM THE ALBUM: Farrokh K. Irani & Sheila Irani with sons Raian Irani, Kairus F. Irani & daughter Morvarid Fernandez.

As a mother, she gave us a lot of rope...

"She lived life on her own terms and never wavered from her ideals. Made friends easily and was always ready to help. Social service came naturally to her. A good mentor, she constantly encouraged people to flourish, especially youngsters. As an educator, she emphasised on a child's comprehensive development, ensuring arts, crafts and sports shared the stage with academics. As a mother, she gave us a lot of rope but never let us cross the line." — Raian F. Irani

MyGreen-22 expo spreads eco-friendly messages

Mysuru, June 11 (MTY&BCT)- MyGreen-22, the flagship environmental event of the Builders' Association of India (BAI), Mysore Centre and Mysore Builders' Charitable Trust (MBCT), began at Nanjaraja Bahadur Choultry this morning. The expo, organised as part of World Environment Month, is open between 10 am and 9 pm today and tomorrow. Entry is free.

Formally opening the expo, Sam Cherian, Managing Director of Schevaran Laboratories, said that it is important to conserve nature for future generations and the beginning must be made now, using eco-friendly products that are on display at the exhibition.

Complimenting BAI for organising such exhibitions every year, he said that BAI is striving to drive home the point that initiatives can begin at home starting from the use of green materials while constructing houses and building complexes.

There are over 15 stalls selling various environment-friendly products like interlock tiles made from discarded single-use plastics, indoor flowering and fruiting plants, M-sand, organic manure manufacturing, home-made toilet-cleaning agents and waste management products and innovative technologies that help homes to emit less carbon.

Main objective of the exhibition is to create awareness among the citizens of Mysuru and motivate them to adapt to a more environment-friendly lifestyle. The expo showcases eco-friendly building construction technology, handicrafts, organic food millets, vegetables and greens, seeds and plant nurseries.

BAI Mysore Centre Chairman-Elect Nagaraj V. Bairy, BAI Mysore Centre Chairman R. Raghunath and other office-bearers of BAI A.S. Yoganarasimha and Venkatesh Prasad were present during the inaugural.

LC polls: Public campaigning ends

The Electoral Officer asked the public to complain to the election authorities in case they notice any poll code violations.

The mustering for Mysuru City and Taluk will take place at the MCC Office tomorrow morning (June 12) and the same will also take place at all Taluk Headquarters of the four districts. The de-mustering will take place after polling concludes at 5 pm on June 13 at Maharani's Women's Commerce and Management College on Valmiki Road in city, Dr. Prakash added.

Counting on June 15

The Regional Commissioner said that counting of votes will be taken up at Maharani's Women's Commerce and Management College at 8 am on June 15 under tight Police security. A total of 28 tables have been arranged, he said adding that the results will be announced the same day after all rounds of counting along with preferential votes.

Dr. Prakash further said that the Election Commission has appointed senior IAS Officer Ponnuraj as the Poll Observer. Also, Micro-Observers have been appointed for every polling booth and CCTV cameras have been installed in all the 150 polling booths, he said.

Officials said they have received several complaints against unauthorised cables lying near electric poles which are not only dangerous but also impede the movement of pedestrians since they are found lying unattended on footpaths.

"Those working with cable TV and telecom companies have little knowledge about electricity. They tie the cables to poles improperly, not only violating rules but also compromising on safety," CESC MD Jayavibhavaswamy told Star of Mysore.

"When they use electricity poles, they have no idea about the need to maintain a minimum distance between two live wires. If the necessary precautions are not taken while dealing with live wires, it will result in electricity accidents. If the cable operators pay the prescribed fee, our staff will not only guide them when they use the poles but will also keep a watch on their cables," he added.

Officers said that almost every electricity pole and transformer pole in Mysuru city has cables running through. "For many years, we have been waiting for private service providers to upgrade the system and take their cables underground. They refuse to do so as they will have to seek permission from the MCC. The easy way is to tie the cables to poles," an officer said.

CESC officers said 70 teams have been formed to disconnect unauthorised cables. With a fee of Rs. 150 per pole in urban areas and Rs. 100 in rural areas, CESC is hoping to rake in at least Rs. 50 crore as revenue.

Cable operators, taking objections to the CESC move said that they pay Rs. 150 for every pole but CESC does not have a proper mechanism to monitor the usage of its poles by cable TV operators. As their cables were being cut yesterday, several operators requested CESC for more time to pay the fee. But their appeals fell on deaf ears.

Forum Centre City is now 'Nexus Centre City'

Mysuru, June 11- Forum Centre City (Forum Mall) will now be known as 'Nexus Centre City.' Nexus Malls, India's largest retail platform with nearly 10 million square feet of Grade A shopping centres across 13 major cities, has consolidated its 17 retail properties under one new brand identity. This marks one of the most significant transformations in the history of organised retail in India and Nexus Malls' commitment to putting customers first.

The new brand identity seeks to strengthen ties between employees, retailers and shoppers of the Nexus Malls platform and increase its awareness. The new logo is modern, bold, and inviting, reflecting Nexus Malls' vision of better engaging with existing and future customers. Each vivid colour of the logo signifies different emotions and concepts including joy, excitement, freshness, life and magic.

Speaking on the occasion, Dalip Sehgal, CEO, Nexus Malls said, "The new identity brings to life our promise of 'Har Din Kuchh Naya,' a promise where we will bring something new, unique and personal every day to our consumers. Moreover, the rebranding will help in ensuring greater cross functional synergies."

The organised retail industry has been enormously impacted by lockdowns and social restrictions of the pandemic. This has encouraged Nexus Malls to quickly rethink its business strategy and find innovative ways to minimise disruptions and restore confidence in Indian business owners and shoppers.

"We are thrilled with the kind of confidence reposed by our patrons resulting in continuous recovery and sustained growth. Presently, we have recovered over 130% of sales and more than 100% footfall at portfolio level", Sehgal added.

To better connect with shoppers, Nexus Malls has started rebranding its retail properties starting with South India in May 2022. The rebranding launch will be celebrated through a range of engaging events over the next few months connecting Nexus Malls customers around the country.

Guinness Record for largest online video album of birthday wishes

Guinness World Records representative Rushinath handing over the certificate to Sri Ganapathy Sachchidananda Swamiji in city yesterday as Adichunchanagiri Seer Sri Nirmalanandanatha Swamiji looks on.

Mysuru, June 11 (BCT)- A video album containing birthday wishes to Avadhoota Datta Peetham Seer Sri Ganapathy Sachchidananda Swamiji has entered Guinness World Records. The Seer celebrated his 80th birthday in a grand manner at the Ashram recently.

Across the world, devotees wished the Seer in their own languages, totalling 18 and made video clips. The overall video album has created a world record. Files poured in as soon as the devotees knew they could send videos wishing Sri Swamiji.

The languages included English, Telugu, Kannada, Hindi, Sanskrit, Tamil, American sign language, Gujarati, Malayalam, Japanese, Swiss, Marathi, Arabic, Italian, Malay, Spanish, Surnami and Turkish.

Language experts later scrutinised each and every video manually to detect the language and identify the word 'birthday' in the respective language. The final video, a long one concatenating all these videos, was proposed for a Guinness World Record as the largest online video album of birthday wishes.

On Friday, Guinness World Records representative Rushinath handed over the certificate — 'Largest online video album of birthday wishes/ greetings was achieved by Ganapathy Sachchidananda Swamiji in Mysuru, Karnataka, India on 10 June 2022' — to Sri Swamiji at Nada Mantapa in the Ashram.

WORD OF THE DAY

Vocation

Pronunciation: voh-KAY-shun.
Meaning: Vocation can refer simply to an occupation, or it can refer to a strong desire to pursue a particular kind of work or course of action.
Origin: When vocation was first used in English in the 15th century it referred specifically to a summons from God to perform a particular task or function in life, especially a religious one. This meaning is no surprise given the word's source: it comes from Latin vocation-, vocacio, meaning "summons," which in turn comes from vocāre, meaning "to call." Vocation also has a secular position in the English language as a word for the strong desire to do a certain kind of work, or as a word for the work itself, making vocation a synonym of the words calling and occupation.
Example: "The play, adapted by Eric Coble from a young adult novel by Lois Lowry, is set in the unnamed 'community' over which the committee presides. The leaders choose mandatory vocations for every citizen, come up with draconian rules, diligently enforce them (sometimes with capital punishment) and control natural human emotions with drugs." — Betsie Freeman

THE ODD WORD

Valienton
Bully, braggard.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Van Gogh's ear for music

Meaning: The expression 'Van Gogh's ear for music' is used to describe someone who is tone-deaf. The reason for this is the painter losing his ear, either by cutting it off himself, or by losing it during a fight with fellow artist Gauguin, depending on your source of information.
Origin: This phrase originates from the famous episode when the artist Van Gogh, cut off his left ear due to mental illnesses. Thereafter, whenever he sang, he was terribly off key.
Example: "Jeff tried to sing, but he had Van Gogh's ear for music and was soon ushered out of the audition."

One good thing about music, when it hits you, you feel no pain. —Bob Marley
